Flash Traffic

NUMBER: 07-03_2013 DATE: 07/12/2013

SUBJECT: Yarnell Fire Disaster Relief

The sudden and tragic death of 19 young men of the Granite Mountain Hotshot Team saddened and shocked all of us. Perch base, like other organizations, want to help the families of the Granite Mountain Team and the suddenly-displaced people that lived in Yarnell and lost everything they owned.

Your Board of Directors has selected two organizations as fitting and appropriate to help the survivors. Selected are the "100 club" to help those families of the fallen firemen and the Salvation Army to provide relief for the Yarnell residents The Board has also determined that any donations collected will be split 50-50 between the two organizations

As we have done in the past, we are asking for contributions from Base members to be sent directly to the Base Commander, Howard Doyle, for collection and distribution. Please make your check out to "Perch Base" and put "Relief Fund" in the memo field. Of course contributions will remain anonymous but remember the cause that we are giving to.

Send your contributions to: Perch Base Relief
