Chaplain – Mike Olsen

Nothing to report.

Base Commander – Chuck Emmett

Chuck announced that he has ordered hats to be sold, with our logo on the back. He had one that was passed around for the members to check out. He has ordered 20 with silver dolphins and 5 with gold dolphins. The price will be under $20.00 each.

OLD BUSINESS

Chuck reported that voting by Perch Base was lower than expected. Many suggestions were made to increase the voting numbers for the next election.

DeWayne Lober reported that the Phoenix Sail has arrived, and he had emailed pictures to those who he had access to their emails. This will all be put on our website. The projected time frame for this project is three years.

Dan Moss reported that the ASSM is still in its fundraising mode, but progressing. He also mentioned that there will be a table set up in the vendor area, at the convention, and that they still need volunteers to man the table at times.

NEW BUSINESS

The convention in Reno, opens their doors on Sunday, August 14. Many Perch Base members are going this year.

Richard Kunze gave a report on the USSVI Calendars. He's ordering for several bases, and the cost this year should be about $7.00 each. They will be available at our October meeting.

Richard Kunze presented the Quilt of Valor to Davy Jones. This is a handmade quilt, done by Ms. Helen Choma for the Quilt of Valor Foundation.

Davy mentioned that he has more Dex Armstrong books on sale today. He will be bringing the rest to the convention.

GOOD OF THE ORDER

Bob Wright mentioned an article in the American Veterans Magazine, an article regarding hearing loss, etc., and how the VA can help. It was suggested that you have a DAV Advocate help with this issue when going to the VA.

George Crider is on the Binnacle List.

50/50

Don Unser won the raffle, which came to $85.00.

ADJOURMENT

Benediction was led by Mike Olsen. Meeting adjourned at 1245 hrs.
