INSTRUCTIONS AIR RAID WARNING FOR OUTDOOR WORKING PARTIES

- I. In case working parties are engaged in outdoor work during a bombing raid, each man of the party is compelled to report to the Japanese conductor as soon as possible after the all-clear has sounded.
- II. In case the Japanese conductor cannot be found, the men have to gather immediately around their party leader, who will be held responsible for his group, until a Japanese conductor relieves him of his duty.
- III. Straying off on own accord or in small groups will be considered as an endeavor to escape and may result in a death penalty.
